THE OVERVIEW

Chulu Far East Peak Climbing is a classic Himalayan mountaineering adventure located in the spectacular Annapurna region of Nepal. Rising to an altitude of 6,059 meters, Chulu Far East is one of the most popular trekking peaks in the Annapurna range and offers climbers a perfect balance of trekking, culture, and technical climbing. The journey passes through traditional Gurung villages, dense forests, high alpine pastures, and glacial valleys before reaching the remote climbing areas. The expedition follows the famous Annapurna Circuit trail before branching off toward Chulu Far East Base Camp. The climb involves glacier travel, snow slopes, and the...

01

Arrival in Kathmandu

Arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, where our representative will welcome you and transfer you to your hotel. After check-in, you can rest or explore the nearby streets of Thamel. In the evening, meet the climbing team for a short briefing about the expedition.

ALT: 1,400m

02

Climbing Preparation and Equipment Check

Today is dedicated to preparing for the expedition. Your guide will carefully check all climbing and trekking equipment and explain the climbing route, safety procedures, and acclimatization plan. Any missing gear can be rented or purchased in Kathmandu

03

Drive to Besisahar

After breakfast, drive from Kathmandu to Besisahar, the gateway to the Annapurna Circuit. Enjoy scenic views of rivers, terraced farmlands, and rural villages along the way.

ALT: 760m MEAL: B, L, D

04

Trek to Chame

Begin trekking through lush forests and traditional villages along the Marsyangdi River. The trail gradually climbs with beautiful waterfalls and changing landscapes as you approach Chame, the district headquarters of Manang.

ALT: 2,670m HIKE: 5–6 hours MEAL: B, L, D

05

Trek to Pisang

Trek through pine forests and narrow valleys with increasing mountain views. You'll pass through apple orchards and traditional settlements before reaching Pisang, surrounded by dramatic rock faces.

ALT: 3,200m HIKE: 5–6 hours MEAL: B, L, D

06

Trek to Manang

Continue trekking into the upper Manang Valley. The landscape becomes more alpine and dry, offering stunning views of Annapurna II, III, IV, and Gangapurna.

ALT: 3,540m HIKE: 5–6 hours MEAL: B, L, D

07

Acclimatization Day at Manang

A vital rest and acclimatization day. Take short hikes to nearby viewpoints or visit local monasteries. This day helps your body adjust to the altitude before moving higher.

ALT: 3,540m HIKE: 3–4 hours MEAL: B, L, D

08

Trek to Yak Kharka

Leave Manang and trek into higher alpine terrain. The trail passes through yak pastures and open landscapes with fewer trees and wider mountain views.

ALT: 4,050m HIKE: 4–5 hours MEAL: B, L, D

09

Trek to Chulu Far East Base Camp

Today you leave the main Annapurna Circuit trail and head toward Chulu Far East Base Camp. The route becomes remote and rugged, crossing alpine meadows and glacial terrain.

ALT: 4,900m HIKE: 4–5 hours MEAL: B, L, D

10

Acclimatization and Climbing Training

Spend the day acclimatizing and practicing essential climbing skills. Your climbing Sherpa will train you in the use of crampons, ice axe, ropes, and glacier travel techniques.

ALT: 4,900m HIKE: 2–3 hours MEAL: B, L, D

11

Trek to High Camp

Climb gradually toward High Camp over snow-covered and rocky terrain. This is a physically demanding day, but positioning closer to the summit increases your chances of success.

ALT: 5,300m HIKE: 4–5 hours MEAL: B, L, D

12

Summit Chulu Far East Peak

Start early in the morning for the summit attempt. Climb snow slopes and fixed rope sections to reach the summit of Chulu Far East Peak. After enjoying panoramic views of the Annapurna range, descend carefully back to base camp.

ALT: 6,059m HIKE: 7–8 hours MEAL: B, L, D

13

Trek Back to Manang

Descend from base camp back to Manang along the same route. Enjoy warmer temperatures and relaxed walking after the successful summit.
